Some years ago I was shot in the left leg, receiving what I considered only a slight wound. It developed into a running sore, and gave me a great deal of pain and inconvenience. I was treated by many doctors, and took a number of blood remedies, but none did me any good, and did not seem to check the progress of the sore. I had heard S. S. highly recommended for the blood, and concluded to give it a trial, and the result was gratifying. S. S. Dayld Dunlop, of Petersburg, Va., who already has the costilest and largest stuble of show horses owned in the South, is constantly adding to his splendid collection by purchase on the great markets of the country, having recently bough in New York a pair of grand high-acting coachers from John Spratley, and the trotting bred high-stepper, Cadillac, a magnificent horse of his type, from T. J. Ryan. Mr. Dunlop resides in Petersburg, but his horses are kept mostly at his fine country estate, Goggin Hall, near Gee postoffice, in Prince George county, Manager Page, who directs the Dunlop stable, is shaping up a great lot for the horse shows this season.

Honest Joe, 2:13 1-4, the gray pacing gelding, by Thomas's Tom Hal, died on the 11th instant in the stable of W. G. Bryan, at Montezuma Farm, this city, death being due to inflammation of the bowels. He was owned by McCleon and Doyle, of Lynchburg, Va., who valued him highly. The gray gelding was being prepared for this season's campaign by Bryan, and was regarded as a good horse in his class. Honest Joe was trained and driven to his record last season by George F. Dyer, of Roanoke, who started him in some twenty races, and was rarely fellind the money with the gray pacet.

T. P. Shelton, Jetersville, Va., has sold to Dr. J. W. Tankard, of Lilian, North-umberland county, Va., the handsome and well bred two-year-old hackney colt Harry Bassott, by the Duke, dam Kate Shelton, by Star of Mapel. Harry Bassett is a well known grown youngster and should make a success as a stock horse.

R. C. Lee, of Hampton, Va., is driving on the road a fast pacing mare by Oak-nod Paron. 2 38 14 0 0 0 mile will promably have her trained and raced, after which it is his intention of sending her to the court or DanaPten, 126.

The annual spring sale of the Smyth Bro.hers-McCleenry-McCleelan Lave Stock Company, of the Union Stock Yards, Nor-folk, Va., to be held on Wednesdiy and Thursday nights, April 26th and 27th will be an event of more than ordinary importance, as 1,00 head of high-class horses will be offered at public ancetion. The offerings will include an executingly choice collection of drivers, saddlers, high acting cobs, family broken and business horses. A number of fine road horses; glso fast trotters and pacers, with and without records, are to be sold and those in search of speed are likely to be suited. The annual spring sales of this company have become an attractive fixture of the Southern horse market and buyers gather in force from various sections, while shippers of national reputation forward choice consignature from the great breeding centers of the country.

The Times-Dispatch Indites You to Join Its Encyclopaedia Club

31 Massive Volumes. Weight About 200 Pounds

Have you a good Encyclopædia in your home, or at your store, factory, or office? If not, the new Times-Dispatch Encyclopaedia Club should interest you,

A few days ago we announced that we had secured a limited number of sets of the world's greatest reference library. This library is being distributed direct from the factory to readers at just about half its former price and on terms so liberal as to place it within reach of every man and woman in Richmond.

THE TIMES-DISPATCH invites you to join this club. Already the interest in it is widespread, and the small number of sets will not last long. Not only is the offer phenomenal, but the work itself is absolutely unrivaled; it is the latest and greatest of its class. THE NEW WERNER 20TH CEN-TURY EDITION of the

Encyclopaedia Britannica

This world-embracing work, revised up to 1905, is a complete library in itself. It contains thirty-one massive volumes, with 25,000 large pages, embellished with a profusion of mapa, diagrams and illustrations. It is equal to 500 books the size of the ordinary novel, and is so far superior to the usual cyclopaedia that any comparison whatever is useless. THE TIMES-DISPATCH, therefore, feels especially fortunate in being able to offer this greatest of Encyclopaedias to its readers.

WE CHOOSE THIS EN-CYCLOPAEDIA.

1. This Encyclopaedia is TWICE THE SIZE of the ordinary cyclopaedia.

2. It is not only an Encyclopaedia in the truest sense of the word, but a nome reference library as well, treating ALL THE SUBJECTS IN FULL, instead of referring the reader else-

3. All its articles were WRITTEN BY EXPERTS-by the men best fitted to deal with them.

4. This Encyclopaedia gives a special volume containing 73 READING COURSES in Law, History, Science, Philosophy, Medicine, Theology and every trade and profession.

5. All the material for these reading courses is furnished by the work Itself, making it a COMPLETE HOME UNIVERSITY.

> 6. IT IS INTERESTING TO READ, being written simply and clearly by the greatest masters of style. Boys and girls will find many things they will like to read, because seemingly written especially for them.

7. It is not only the best, but of the present remarkable plan

SEVEN REASONS WHY |. 50 PER CENT. CUT IN PRICE.

On account of their extensive advertising and distributing facilities, The American Newspaper Association secured entire control of the latest edition of this monumental work, which they are distributing direct from the factory, thus cutting out middlemen's profits and effecting a saving to readers of nearly 50 per cent. of the former price. Through the courtesy of the Association THE TIMES-DISPATCH is enabled to supply a limited number of sets of this edition at exactly the same terms and
